Would not be Without
VEGETINE!
FOR TEN TIMES ITS COST.

The great benefit I received from the use of VEGETINE induces me to give my testimony in its favor. I believe it to be not only of great value for restoring the health, but a preventive of diseases peculiar to the spring and summer seasons. I would not be without it for ten times its cost.
EDWIN TILDEN,
Attorney, and General Agent for Massachusetts of the Craftsmen's Life Assurance Company, No. 49 Sears Building, Boston, Mass.

VEGETINE
Purifies the Blood and Restores the Health.
WHAT IS VEGETINE?

It is a compound extracted from barks, roots and herbs. It is Nature's Remedy. It is perfectly harmless from any bad effect upon the system. It is nourishing and strengthening. It acts directly upon the blood. It quiets the nervous system. It gives you good, sweet sleep at night. It is a great panacea for our aged fathers and mothers, for it gives them strength, quiets their nerves, and gives them Nature's sweet sleep, as has been proved by many an aged person. It is a great Blood Purifier. It is a soothing remedy for our children. It has relieved and cured thousands. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it.

Marvelous Effect.

MR. H. R. STEVENS: Dear Sir—I have used the great Blood Remedy, Vegetine, and feel it a duty to acknowledge the great benefit it has done me. In the Spring of the year 1862, I was sick from general debility caused by overwork, want of sleep and proper rest. I was very weak and much emaciated. I tried many remedies without receiving any benefit from any of them, until I was persuaded to try Vegetine. Before I had taken this one week, my improved condition gave me renewed hope and courage. I continued to take it every day, gaining more strength, until I was completely restored to health. The effect of this remedy, in case of general debility, is indeed marvellous.
ELIZABETH A. FOLEY,
May 3d, 1871, 21 Webster St., Charlestown, Mass.

CHALESTOWN, June 11, 1861.
MR. H. R. STEVENS: Dear Sir—This is to certify that Vegetine made a perfect cure of me when my attending physician has pronounced my case consumption, and said I could not survive many days.
MRS. LEDSTON, 35 Cook Street.
The facts stated by Mrs. Ledston are personally known by me, and they are true.

Marrying by Proxy.

The Court of Law and Equity, says the Kansas City, Mo., Times, was the scene of a rather extraordinary matrimonial transaction the other day. An aged man, evidently past his fiftieth year, called upon the clerk of the court for assistance in marrying a wife. Mr. Noland, who is considered an adept in matrimonial transactions, undertook the job, which was rather more difficult and complicated than he first anticipated. It was none of your common weddings, nor was it like the one where Squire Allen read the Episcopalian rite of confirmation in mistake for a marriage ceremony, and closed by giving the benediction. No, this was a marriage between two persons separated by fully six thousand miles of land and water. The old man informed the clerk of the court that he wanted to get married to a woman now living in Holland; that he would perform such ceremonies as were necessary here, and she would be married to her brother in Holland by proxy for him. Then the brother was to ship him his wife, with her baggage, direct to Kansas City. It appears that the lady has an objection to leaving her home in Holland before she has been married in some manner; and, as the bridegroom cannot afford to leave his business here to go after his wife, he decided to apply to the courts for an act of procuration. Mr. Noland, as soon as he understood the case, proceeded to prepare the necessary papers, and the old man went away delighted, and last night delighted himself with a happy consciousness of being a married man, with his bride six thousand miles away. There are many ways of being married, but this appears to be the most unsatisfactory way of all. It is not likely that it will become either popular or fashionable.

Bound to get a Subscriber Anyway.

He was once out on a jaunt in the township of White Oak, Ingham county, sticking to every farmer until he got his name and money, and it so happened that he came to a house where death had called a few hours before. The farmer's wife was laid out, and the husbandman and his children were grieving over her loss when the editor knocked at the door.

"What's up?" inquired the editor, as he saw the farmer's solemn countenance before him.

"My wife is dead," replied the farmer.

"Is that so?" mused the editor, a little disappointed. "Did she die easy?"

"Dropped off like a lamb."

"Did she say anything?"

"Not a word—she just went right to sleep like."

"I didn't know," continued the editor, a sad look on his face, "but what she might have requested you to subscribe for the Cascade, which you know is the best paper in the county. If you want it I'll take your name right in, and under the circumstances I won't charge a cent for the obituary notice."

The farmer hung off for a while, but before the editor went away he had two additional dollars in his pocket, and had written out an obituary notice for publication in the next issue, which the bereaved husband pronounced "a mighty smart piece."—Detroit Free Press.

A Paris Beggar.

A Paris journal tells the story of a beggar who presented himself regularly at a certain coffee house with a clarionet under his arm. "Will you allow me, gentlemen," said he in a humble tone of voice, "to play a tune? I am only an amateur, and if you prefer giving me a few coppers, I will spare you the annoyance of listening to me." Every one felt at once for a few stray coppers, and the musician departed with a profound obeisance. This he repeated several evenings in succession. At last, one evening, a young man who had never failed to contribute to the wants of the itinerant musician asked him in a friendly manner to give them a tune; let it be good or bad he wanted to hear him. "But I am afraid, sir, I shall disappoint you." "Never mind that; give us a tune." "But I am a very poor player, and I have a very poor instrument." "No matter for that; I want to hear you." "Well, sir, since you insist upon it," said the poor man, "I will tell you that I don't play at all. I carry this clarionet merely for the purpose of threatening people with my performance."

Paper From Hop-Vines.

A discovery has been made by a French firm of paper manufacturers, which seems likely to interest hop-growers. At the last general assembly of paper-makers, M.M. Jourdeuil, Parizot and Gussee submitted some samples of a new textile fabric to the Congress. The high price of rags has for some time past given rise to serious efforts to utilize the textile portion of various vegetable fibres. Thus wood, straw, esparto grass, aloes, alfa, phormium, and various other vegetable products have been pressed into the service, but have not proved entirely satisfactory. Among other drawbacks, the fibres obtained from these are short, and not sufficiently supple. Such faults do not exist in the new product, which has been hitherto regarded as useless, namely, the textile sheath of the hop-stalk. By removing this outer skin and subjecting it to a certain chemical process, a textile substance, possessing the qualities which make rags so valuable in paper-making, length, suppleness, and delicacy of texture, has been produced. The invention is patented, and further protected by the novel character of the chemical process.—Brewers' Journal

VEGETINE!

FOR TEN TIMES ITS COST.

The great benefit I received from the use of VEGETINE induces me to give my testimony in its favor. I believe it to be not only of great value for restoring the health, but a preventive of diseases peculiar to the spring and summer seasons. I would not be without it for ten times its cost.
EDWIN TILDEN,
Attorney, and General Agent for Massachusetts of the Craftsmen's Life Assurance Company, No. 40 Sears Building, Boston, Mass.

VEGETINE

Purifies the Blood and Restores the Health.

WHAT IS VEGETINE?

It is a compound extracted from barks, roots and herbs. It is Nature's Remedy. It is perfectly harmless from any bad effect upon the system. It is nourishing and strengthening. It acts directly upon the blood. It quiets the nervous system. It gives you good, sweet sleep at night. It is a great panacea for our aged fathers and mothers, for it gives them strength, quiets their nerves, and gives them Nature's sweet sleep, as has been proved by many an aged person. It is a great Blood Purifier. It is a soothing remedy for our children. It has relieved and cured thousands. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it.

Marvelous Effect.

Mr. H. R. STEVENS: Dear Sir—I have used the great Blood Remedy, Vegetine, and feel it a duty to acknowledge the great benefit it has done me. In the Spring of the year 1863, I was sick from general debility caused by overwork, want of sleep and proper rest. I was very weak and much emaciated. I tried many remedies without receiving any benefit from any of them, until I was persuaded to try Vegetine. Before I had taken this one week, my improved condition gave me renewed hope and courage. I continued to take it every day, gaining more strength, until I was completely restored to health. The effect of this remedy, in case of general debility, is indeed marvellous.

CHALESTOWN, June 11, 1861.
Mr. H. R. STEVENS: Dear Sir—This is to certify that Vegetine made a perfect cure of me when my attending physician has pronounced my case consumption, and said I could not survive many days.

Marrying by Proxy.

The Court of Law and Equity, says the Kansas City, Mo., Times, was the scene of a rather extraordinary matrimonial transaction the other day. An aged man, evidently past his fiftieth year, called upon the clerk of the court for assistance in marrying a wife. Mr. Noland, who is considered an adept in matrimonial transactions, undertook the job, which was rather more difficult and complicated than he first anticipated. It was none of your common weddings, nor was it like the one where Squire Allen read the Episcopalian rite of confirmation in mistake for a marriage ceremony, and closed by giving the benediction. No, this was a marriage between two persons separated by fully six thousand miles of land and water. The old man informed the clerk of the court that he wanted to get married to a woman now living in Holland; that he would perform such ceremonies as were necessary here, and she would be married to her brother in Holland by proxy for him. Then the brother was to ship him his wife, with her baggage, direct to Kansas City. It appears that the lady has an objection to leaving her home in Holland before she has been married in some manner; and, as the bridegroom cannot afford to leave his business here to go after his wife, he decided to apply to the courts for an act of procuration. Mr. Noland, as soon as he understood the case, proceeded to prepare the necessary papers, and the old man went away delighted, and last night delighted himself with a happy consciousness of being a married man, with his bride six thousand miles away. There are many ways of being married, but this appears to be the most unsatisfactory way of all. It is not likely that it will become either popular or fashionable.

Bound to get a Subscriber Anyway.

He was once out on a jaunt in the township of White Oak, Ingham county, sticking to every farmer until he got his name and money, and it so happened that he came to a house where death had called a few hours before. The farmer's wife was laid out, and the husbandman and his children were grieving over her loss when the editor knocked at the door.

"What's up?" inquired the editor, as he saw the farmer's solemn countenance before him.

"My wife is dead," replied the farmer.

"Is that so?" mused the editor, a little disappointed. "Did she die easy?"

"Dropped off like a lamb."

"Did she say anything?"

"Not a word—she just went right to sleep like."

"I didn't know," continued the editor, a sad look on his face, "but what she might have requested you to subscribe for the Cascade, which you know is the best paper in the county. If you want it I'll take your name right in, and under the circumstances I won't charge a cent for the obituary notice."

The farmer hung off for a while, but before the editor went away he had two additional dollars in his pocket, and had written out an obituary notice for publication in the next issue, which the bereaved husband pronounced "a mighty smart piece."—Detroit Free Press.

A Paris Beggar.

A Paris journal tells the story of a beggar who presented himself regularly at a certain coffee house with a clarionet under his arm. "Will you allow me, gentlemen," said he in a humble tone of voice, "to play a tune? I am only an amateur, and if you prefer giving me a few coppers, I will spare you the annoyance of listening to me." Every one felt at once for a few stray coppers, and the musician departed with a profound obeisance. This he repeated several evenings in succession. At last, one evening, a young man who had never failed to contribute to the wants of the itinerant musician asked him in a friendly manner to give them a tune; let it be good or bad he wanted to hear him. "But I am afraid, sir, I shall disappoint you." "Never mind that; give us a tune." "But I am a very poor player, and I have a very poor instrument." "No matter for that; I want to hear you." "Well, sir, since you insist upon it," said the poor man, "I will tell you that I don't play at all. I carry this clarionet merely for the purpose of threatening people with my performance."

Paper From Hop-Vines.

A discovery has been made by a French firm of paper manufacturers, which seems likely to interest hop-growers. At the last general assembly of paper-makers, M.M. Jourdeuil, Parizot and Gussee submitted some samples of a new textile fabric to the Congress. The high price of rags has for some time past given rise to serious efforts to utilize the textile portion of various vegetable fibres. Thus wood, straw, esparto grass, aloes, alfa, phormium, and various other vegetable products have been pressed into the service, but have not proved entirely satisfactory. Among other drawbacks, the fibres obtained from these are short, and not sufficiently supple. Such faults do not exist in the new product, which has been hitherto regarded as useless, namely, the textile sheath of the hop-stalk. By removing this outer skin and subjecting it to a certain chemical process, a textile substance, possessing the qualities which make rags so valuable in paper-making, length, suppleness, and delicacy of texture, has been produced. The invention is patented, and further protected by the novel character of the chemical process.—Brewers' Journal

MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE.—Whereas default has been made in the payment of the money secured by a mortgage dated the fourth day of May, 1854, executed by Cornelius H. Elting and Catherine Ann, his wife, of the town of Westfield, Richmond County, New York, to secure the payment of fifteen hundred dollars with interest thereon from the date thereof on the fourth day of May, 1855, and which mortgage was recorded in the Clerk's Office of the County of Ulster in Book No. 48 of Mortgages, on page 526 &c., June 22, 1854, at 9 o'clock A. M.

And whereas the said Cornelius Oliver duly assigned and transferred said mortgage and the bond accompanying the same to Jane Smith, wife of Gardinier Smith of the town of Hurley, Ulster County, New York, by assignment dated April 27, 1867, and recorded in the Ulster County Clerk's Office in Book No. 89 of Mortgages, on page 522, &c., May 30, 1868, at 10¼ o'clock A. M.

And whereas the said Jane Smith died intestate and without debts on the 11th day of January, 1874, leaving Cornelius C. Smith, John F. Smith, Richard C. Smith, Mary Dennis, and Jeannette Van Wagenen, all above twenty-one years of age, as her only children and heirs at law.

And whereas, the said Cornelius C. Smith, John F. Smith, Richard C. Smith, Mary Dennis and Jeannette Van Wagenen duly assigned and transferred all their right, title and interest in and to said bond and mortgage to their father, Gardinier Smith, by assignment dated January 31, 1874, and duly recorded in the Ulster County Clerk's office, in book 186 of deeds, on page 59, &c., February 20, 1874.

And whereas the amount claimed to be due upon said mortgage at the time of the first publication of this notice is the sum of fifteen hundred and ninety one dollars, and eighty-two cents, to wit: $1,500 of principal and $91.82 of interest, and which is the whole amount claimed to be unpaid on said mortgage.

Now therefore, notice is hereby given that by virtue of the said mortgage and the power of sale therein contained, and duly recorded as aforesaid; and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises therein described at public auction at the front door of the Court House, in the city of Kingston, in the county of Ulster, and state of New York, on the 12th day of June, 1874, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day.

The premises are described in said mortgage as follows: All that certain farm lying in the town of Marbletown, in the county of Ulster, and state of New York, and is bounded as follows, viz: Bounded on the north by lands of the heirs of John P. Brink and Gardinier Smith, on the east by lands of Abraham Dieta and southwestern turnpike, on the south by lands of Jacob VanCuren, Edward O'Neil, Cornelius M. VanBuren, John Dewitt and Henry T. Jansen, and on the west by Mountain Road, containing about three hundred and thirty-four acres, be the same more or less, together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues and profit thereof.

The Daily Freeman.

Kingston, Friday Morning, April 24.

Inasmuch as the government must have troops on duty at Little Rock to prevent bloodshed and riot between the contending factions, it would be a good thing if some cooler-headed fellow than Colonel Rose were in command of them. The Colonel is too impetuous and boisterous. He plainly thinks himself called upon to produce a row in order that he may glorify himself by suppressing it. Our dispatches say that "hot words" were used between him and a Colonel White, one of Brooks' vagabond brigade. Now, let Rose wither away and the ghost of Gen. Halleck or some other more peaceful shade hang out upon his forsaken stem.

The Troy Times thinks Eastman's rapid transit bill was killed by his caustic remarks about the Railroad Committee a short time ago. Now, is that so? How mistaken we may be sometimes; we thought it was the Commodore's money that killed Eastman's bill; yet if the Times says not, we give up, of course. But the Commodore has money and he has a rapid transit bill which he wants to put through; and, therefore, how natural was our mentally associating the two. And the Commodore is so well acquainted with the ways of the moving men to do his bidding, too! So, he didn't try to buy votes; we are really glad to know that on so good authority as that of the Times.

Great and progressive nations always spread their language with their ideas. It will hardly be doubted that the two great English-speaking peoples, England and America, exert a greater influence to-day upon the rest of the world, to shape and mould it, than any other two nations. Wherever they touch they not only speak their native tongue but impress the desirableness of learning it on the minds of other peoples. Bayard Taylor in his letters now being written from Egypt mentions the fact that a man speaking English only can now make himself understood by the natives to a degree not dreamed of twenty years ago. It is not possible to give all the reasons which appear to point in that direction in this place, but we are growingly of the opinion that the English is one day destined to be the widest known language of the globe. No other is so well adapted to universality; it is comprehensive enough for all purposes and at the same time capable of accurately expressing the minutest shade of poetic or philosophic thought. Whoever lives at the end of the next century may hear the tongue of New York and London spoken as familiarly in Jerusalem as was the Hebrew in the days of Christ.—What a desirable consummation that would be travelers and scholars can imagine.

Our State Savings Banks.

The State Superintendent of Banks has included in his forthcoming report a showing in regard to the savings banks which is everything but encouraging. It seems that during the year ending January 1st, 1874, the aggregate deposits in all the banks was only $233,000 over those of the year before. With the sole exception of the year 1862, when there was a decrease, these are the smallest figures for any year since 1858. During the latter half of the year just closed there was a withdrawal of nearly $8,000,000 in excess of money lodged and interest credited. To account for this, several facts need to be considered. Savings banks, it must be remembered, sustain more intimate relations to the condition and prosperity of our great working population than any others. They are a sort of thermometer to tell when labor can afford to lay by a dollar and when it cannot. When the surplus in these banks is large, two inferences at least are perfectly fair to be drawn from the fact: First, that work is abundant and remunerative, and, second, that the laborer is disposed to economize and invest a part of his wages against the inevitable rainy day. On the other hand, when the surplus is small, and, still more, when there is a tendency to draw out deposits, it follows that work is slack and labor is living upon the savings of other years. Making due allowance for exceptional cases, this upon the whole is necessarily true. Why, then, was there a small increase in the surplus over former years for the year just ended and why the large withdrawal of funds by depositors? The answer has many sides, as the net result comes from a complication of causes, but the case has two or three salient and tangible features. The Chicago and Boston fires, by destroying about $25,000,000 worth of property, deranged the business of the whole country and took more or less money from every man and woman in it. The insurance companies being suddenly called upon to pay unheard-of losses were, many of them, entirely broken up and many more seriously crippled. And so far as the stockholders in the insurance companies were at the same time depositors in the savings banks, it would naturally follow that one must suffer with the other. But a more important consideration remains behind: the general distrust of the financial policy of the government and an ignorant suspicion on the part of thousands of the stability and soundness of all moneyed institutions contributed to the panic of last fall and the consequent withdrawal of the deposits. The deranged state of business and manufactures of all kinds, throwing the laborer out of employment altogether or giving him only uncertain and fitful work to do, has brought in ten thousand households the pinch of poverty and called into use what few dollars they might have had in the bank.

Grant's Second Vicksburgh.

President Grant's veto of the inflation bill was a pleasant surprise. To be candid we hardly expected it, but we are no less grateful to its author, for he has done a substantial service to the country. It must not be forgotten that it required considerable moral courage for him to do it, as his most intimate political friends were the most urgent advocates of the most wholesale inflation.

It is not that this veto stops the issue of an important amount of greenbacks and national bank notes, but that it blocks the progress of inflation, interposing the President with the immense power of the veto athwart the swelling stream of the inflation idea. Inflation is like drinking rum, the habit grows by what it feeds upon, and the inflationist who to-day could hardly summon the cheek to ask for five hundred millions of greenbacks, would next year think it a very reasonable thing to pile a couple of hundred millions more on top of that. Once started on the wild torrent and we must take the whirlpools and rapids and cataracts as they come. The President has by this message put himself in direct and positive antagonism to the inflation idea, and that means that to carry out their plans the inflationists must send one-third more members to Congress.

The veto is of incalculable good as far as it goes, and it goes as far as a veto can. But a veto is only of negative good; it only prevents. This veto prevents a bad bill from becoming a law. It must be followed by a positive system of finance, and that system must look to resumption.

As we have heretofore stated, there is no statesman of finance in the United States who can put in an absolutely fixed sum the exact amount of currency the country needs. It is incapable of being fixed, as to be neither scarce nor redundant it must correspond exactly to those needs, and they are shifting. If four hundred millions are required in February, five hundred millions would be insufficient for May, while August would get along easily with three hundred and fifty. There is but one system that can accommodate itself exactly and without violent and disturbed friction, and that is free banking, made secure by ample pledges of bonds and reserve requirements that shall be just alike to the banks and the public, with the further imperative provision that every dollar bill presented at the bank's counter shall command gold or legal tender. This is the flexible currency so much in request, and is the only kind that ever will be found practicable. Under this system currency will flow in and out as the tides of business ebb and flow. The good work inaugurated or at least hinted at by Grant's veto must be made complete by Congress passing a bill of the character above indicated.

CURRENT TOPICS.

—Ohio is pretty thoroughly disgusted with its Democratic Legislature.

—What a pity that impertinent visit of Logan, Carpenter and Butler at the White House was all for nothing.

—The Newburgh Journal thinks there will have to be a new party unless the Republican repudiates Morton, Butler & Co.

—This is an unkind cut. The Rochester Express wants Tupper to come over in a French steamer.

—The most intensely jubilant paper over the veto was the Albany Journal. It had a long leader and nine smaller articles referring to it.

—The first mate of the Amerique has committed suicide. Why didn't he do it a few days before the wreck and thus earn the thanks of the consignees of a valuable cargo?

—Thurlow Weed's condemnation of the new Capitol extravagance is very timely, and the names he suggests for a new commission are excellent.

—It is a good time now to take fresh hope in regard to business. Since the veto the prospects of a steady, legitimate business are fifty per cent. better than when all was uncertain.

—Here is a man who should be honored among men: General F. A. Walker, who now holds a professorship in Yale College, refuses to accept any salary from the government for the work he is doing on the census report.

—John A. Logan got very black in the face, Morton gesticulated violently and Sime Cameron despaired of the Keystone State when the veto was read, but these gentlemen are of no consequence except on the stump and as disbursers of campaign funds.

—The Bald Eagle gets his feathers ruffled sometimes. Hon. Mr. Hammond accused the Speaker of arbitrariness the other evening, and the Honorable James intimated that if Hammond repeated the offense the Sergeant-at-Arms would take charge of him.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—The dead Elder Knapp believed firmly in a personal devil, who walked the earth in the form of a Universalist minister, or an editor.

—A girl only twelve years of age, belonging in Wapello, Iowa, has passed an examination before the county superintendent of schools, and has received a license to teach.

—It is said that a popular lecturer recently kept an audience up until half past ten to listen to his argument in favor of going to bed promptly at nine.

—An Iowa Granger thinks that there is too much lawyer in our politics, and that as a nation we have gradually given up to the lawyer nearly every place of honor and trust.

—The Board of Excise of Rochester furnish the women of that city with blank forms and copies of the law, to be served on saloon keepers, not to sell to husbands when forbidden by their wives.

—Capt. Logan, of Danville, Ky., gave his sheep a mixture of salt and ashes lately, and the next day found 40 out of 71 dead. He wants to know which killed them—the salt or the ashes?

—A large boat built in the country, five miles back from the water, was hauled to Belfast, Me., the other day, by fourteen yoke of oxen, and two spans of horses, and was launched.

—The Supreme Court of Austria has just decided that a marriage blessed by an Old Catholic cure is not valid in a civil point of view, the state not having as yet recognized that body.

—The carrying away, last fall, of the bluff at Long Branch lessens the distance between the hotels and the surf very materially. This will be appreciated by those who have an antipathy to walking.

—The following statement is from the Hartford Post: "The Hill brothers, farmers, near Hayden's station, are the proud owners of a cow which turns the scales at 3,600 pounds.—She is six years old, and was raised by her present owners."

—The Massachusetts Anglers' Association having become convinced, from the result of their investigations, that smelt during the spawning season are not healthy food, since they then are full of parasites, have procured the passage of a law to prevent taking them at that time.

—The supreme court of South Carolina has recently decided that, in that state, all judicial sales of real estate must be made by the sheriffs, and that a decree in a foreclosure suit, deciding the mortgaged premises to be sold by a special referee, is in contravention of law.

—A clergyman at the examination of the young scholars of his Sunday school put the following question: "Why did the people of Israel set up a golden calf?" "Because they hadn't money enough to set up an ox," was the reply of a little chap, who took a dollar and cents view of the matter.

—During the performance of "Meg Merriles" by Charlotte Cushman, in Washington last week, she created a profound sensation. On Friday Mme. Nilsson was present in the audience, and during the performance stood up in her box, clapping her hands and shouting "Bravo! Bravo!"—declaring subsequently that it was the most remarkable performance she had ever witnessed.

—An exchange notes the rumor that Donati, the great astronomer, died from excitement consequent upon discovering that the earth is approaching the sun so rapidly that in ten years it will be drawn into the sun and shriveled up. The paragraphist then adds the decidedly American comment that "This will be discouraging news to the insurance companies."

—The Charleston, S. C., News and Courier states that shortly after Gov. Moses visited the state penitentiary on a recent Sunday twenty-seven convicts were discharged. The Governor's Private Secretary says that only five were pardoned, and if twenty-seven were released it was without the Governor's knowledge.—Then, to complicate matters still more, no record could be found at the State House of the pardon of five, even.

—Joaquin Miller, the wild California poet, found Geneva full of his countrymen, and asked to be taken to some place where there were no Americans. The boatman looked at him for a moment, then hopelessly up and down the lake and away across toward Mont Blanc, and at last shook his head; but suddenly a new idea seemed to strike him, and he lifted his eyes toward heaven.

—Mayor Sayre of Utica has issued a proclamation directing the enforcement of the wide tire ordinance. The ordinance is number fifty-one, and provides that no person shall, on any wagon, cart or vehicle, carry on the streets of the city a weight of 2,000 lbs., or any greater weight less than 4,000 pounds, unless the tires on said vehicle shall be at least three inches in width; or to carry 4,000 pounds or upwards unless the tires on said vehicle shall be at least four inches in width.

Proceedings of Parliament.

LONDON, April 23.—In the House of Commons to-day Disraeli stated that the ministry had advised the Queen to confer a mark of distinction upon Captain Glover for his services in the Ashantee war.

Gladstone, in a speech reviewing the budget, said he regarded the reduction of a penny in the income tax an important step toward the abolition of tax. He approved the removal of duties on sugar, but opposed the abolition of horse licenses. He attacked the method proposed for the relief of local taxation, because the question next year would be prejudiced by this year's legislation. He generally congratulated Sir Stafford Northcote, Chancellor of the Exchequer, on the favorable exhibit of finances which he had been enabled to lay before the House.

SUGAR DUTIES ABOLISHED.

The bill abolishing sugar duties from May 1st has finally passed the House of Commons.

THE INCOME TAX AND HORSE LICENSE.

An Insane Lad Murders an Infant.

ARKANSAS AFFAIRS.

A New Movement by Baxter.

LITTLE ROCK, April 23.—Secretary of State Johnson, whose election has never been controverted, called at the State House this forenoon and ordered Brooks and his men out of his office. They refused to go and Brooks said since Johnson had signed Baxter's proclamation convening the Legislature and refused to recognize him as Governor, he would refuse to recognize him as Secretary of State. Johnson then went and applied to Col. Rose for troops to assist him in taking possession of his office. The result is not yet known. All is quiet to-day. There are no hostile demonstrations.

METROPOLITAN NEWS.

The Emigrant Question.

NEW YORK, April 23.—President Hurlbut of the Emigration Commission has addressed a communication to Governor Dix, stating that unless emigrant head money be again fixed at two and and a half dollars there will be a large deficit annually to be provided by other means. For the current year the board will need $225,000 more than they are likely to receive from emigrants. Means must be provided or Ward's Island must be abandoned and the inmates of its hospitals, nurseries, refuge building and lunatic asylum must be handed over to the Commissioners of Charities and Correction to add to the enormous burden of taxation of the city. By the 1st of May this commission will have expended the $100,000 recently borrowed and all receipts of the current year to that date. Should no further means be supplied or provided the almost immediate abandonment of the island institution will be absolutely necessary.

A TRAGIC DEATH OF A BRIDE.

At East Meadow, L. I., last night, after a wedding, the bride stepped into a carriage and before any other person could get in a musket fired as a parting salute frightened the horse, which ran away, smashing the carriage, and the lady becoming entangled in the lines was dragged a long distance and nearly torn to pieces. The horse only stopped by falling into a ditch and breaking both legs, dragging after him the body of the lady.

The National Board of Fire Underwriters reelected the old officers except Ezra White, C. J. Martin of New York and Henry Kellogg of Hartford, members of the Executive Committee, for whom Alfred Pell and D. A. Heald of New York and Wm. Bennett, Jr., of Hartford are substituted. The maximum commissions to local agents was fixed at fifteen per cent. Adjourned sine die.

THE MISSISSIPPI FLOOD.

Piteous Appeals from Sufferers—Particulars of the Freshet.

NEW ORLEANS, April 23.—The state authorities receive letters daily from persons in the overflowed sections, asking for provisions, &c. The following extracts from them are fair specimens:

A letter dated Simmsport, Avoyelles parish, addressed to the Governor, says: "Please send me some supplies, as I have a large family—nine children—to keep up and feed. The water is three feet deep in my yard and over all my place. It is utterly impossible for me to get anything for my family to eat without calling on you for assistance. Please for pity's sake do not fail to send me some supplies by return steamer."

The following are extracts from a letter to the Governor dated Big Bend, Avoyelles Parish: "The whole Bayou des Glaizes and Red River front is entirely overflowed. All of us are bankrupt. We have no money, no credit. The commission merchants have all shut down on us and we have no provisions. Many of us are in a manner starving. The water is all over the country and is still rising. The cows that are not drowned are dying for want of food. Sheep and hogs are drowned by hundreds. Take this matter into consideration and see if something cannot be done for us."

The Governor to-day received a letter from Charleston, St. Mary's parish, which says: "Among the many sufferers by the recent overflow are those who have lived on the east side of Bayou Teche, on Bayou Chenes, Bayou Pigeon, on the shores of Grand Lake and Lake Chicot, all of which districts are now submerged, leaving some 300 families in a state of utter destitution."

General Jeff. Thompson, Chief State Engineer, returned to-day from the upper coast. He states that the storm which commenced on Thursday of last week and continued until Sunday caused the crevasses on the west side of the river to increase rapidly in width. The crevasse near Port Hudson at Longwood and Virginia plantations is now three-quarters of a mile wide, though only about three feet deep, the levee being a very small one from three to four feet in height. The crevasse heretofore reported as having occurred in Morganza bend, below New Texas landing, is in what is known as the Van Pelt Morganza levee, between the original Morganza levee and Grand Levee. The break is now about 4,000 feet wide in the new levee, which was about 13 feet high. The flow of water through this is checked by the old levee in front and a dense growth of cottonwood between the two levees. In the old levee there are four breaks, aggregating about 800 feet. The Hyckey crevasse below Baton Rouge is now 1,500 feet wide and seven feet deep, the water passing through at a velocity of eight miles an hour. General Thompson reports another crevasse at Lake Side plantation, Point Coupe parish. He states that about twenty sugar plantations have been covered by water from Hyckey's and that hundreds of poor families living on the bayous have been drowned out. The Bonnett Carre crevasse is now 700 feet wide and four feet deep. In the centre, where the levee is entirely gone, the water is cutting a channel. The McCullem crevasse, below Baton Rouge, will probably be closed in a few days. Though these breaks are comparatively small, the water from them has already covered many large plantations and driven out the poor people living behind them.

No mail trains arrived by either the Jackson or Mobile roads yesterday. They are detained two days by bridges being carried away. The northwestern mails now due by the Jackson road are coming by boat from Vicksburg.

A gentleman who reached this city to-day from the flooded parishes states that Tangepahoa, Tyckafu and Amite rivers were swollen by rains from Thursday to Sunday, completely overflowing their banks and spreading over the country on either side for miles. The people are fleeing to the highlands.

It is estimated that the water is three feet higher than ever known before. Amite River rose very rapidly. Several children are reported drowned in the streets of Port Vincent, which was overflowed. The flat country of St. Helena, Livingston, Tangepahoa, Washington, St. Tammany & East Feliciana parishes are flooded for miles.

The Times says a gentleman from the upper coast gives the most appalling description of the condition of the people who live in the district overflowed by the Hyckey crevasse. He says that not less than twenty splendid sugar plantations have been submerged from that source already. That, however, was nothing compared with sufferings of people on Sunday last. The gentleman witnessed a large number of persons wading their way out of the torrents of water which passed through that break. Among them were women in water up to their arm pits, holding their infants above their heads, and it was reported that some had been floated away on the rushing tide with their little ones in their arms.

Bayou Grasse Tete advices state that there is now from three to four feet of water on the east side of the bayou, and it is expected that the water will overflow the west side. The water is backing up Bayou Plaquemine as far as Durdemer's pantation and will probably reach the town of Bayou Goula on the Mississippi River. Mayor Wiltz has been applied to for immediate relief to be sent to the Grasse Tete country. The recent rains continue and there are floods in the Ouachita and Red River valleys.

STOCK and MONEY MARKET.

NEW YORK, April 23.

Customs receipts $255,000. Treasury disbursements $75,000. Money rose to 7 at one time during the day, but closed at 4@5. Sterling quiet at from $4.85½@4.86 for 60 days, $4.88½@4.88¾ for sight. Gold opened 113⅛, closed 112⅝, being the two extremes. Carrying rates flat to 4; closed 5. Clearings $80,000,000. State bonds quiet and nominal.—Governments closed weak at a light decline. Railroad bonds quiet in late dealings, with prices a fraction lower. A day of greater depression without panic has hardly ever been known at the Stock Exchange. Prices have had very few rallies and the decline has been large, many stocks being as low as before inflation was talked of and some of them nearly down to the figures made during the panic, and when the Stock Exchange was closed. During the last hour of business the stock market was very unsettled; feverishness and depression characterized dealings. The lowest quotations of the day were generally made, Northwest common showing a decline of 4⅛ per cent. from the highest point, Western Union, Wabash and St. Paul common 3⅛@4 per cent, and Rock Island, Northwest preferred, Union Pacific, Hannibal and St. Joseph and Pacific Mail 1⅝ to 3⅛ per cent. New York Central, Lake Shore, Ohios, C., C. & I. C., Delaware, Lackawanna & Western and Atlantic & Pacific preferred showed a decline of over 1 per cent. in final dealings. There was a final recovery from the lowest price for the general list. The enormous depreciation in values noticed above depleted the margin of many small speculators and there was consequently a steady stream of long stock poured on the market, which operated against any material recovery. The temper of speculation is decidedly bearish; more so than for a long time past, and the bull element seems to be completely demoralized. Wabash, Northwest, Union Pacific and Western Union were heavily pressed for sale outside of Wall street. The feeling was that the total defeat of the Senate bill is a blessing.

GENERAL NEWS.

—The President of the Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad says the road cannot live under the new restrictive law of that state.

—The St. Louis Globe speculatese concerning the obituary of the future. We append one or two specimens:

Charles Pupker; 3½ pounds; cremated July 9, 1772.

For wife of above see third pickle bottle on next shelf.

Little Tommy. Burnt up September 16th, 1862.

Jane Matilda Perkins. Oct. 3, 1869. Put up by the Alden Corpse Cremating Company. None genuine without signature.

—The following story comes from Vienna: It is said the pianist Listz found himself recently in the company of a number of ladies, who begged him in hyperbolical terms to procure for them "the ecstacies, the artistic raptures, which his magnificent talent inevitably produces." He obligingly seated himself at the piano and played. When he had finished some of his admirers had fainted. "Well," said Listz, "I played wrong notes all through intentionally; so badly indeed, that I should have been turned out of doors at any elementary school of music!"

—The Elkader, Iowa, Journal says the Recorder of Clayton county has just received for record a mortgage from the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad to Russell Sage and Levi P. Morton, of New York for the modest sum of $35,000,000. $25,000,000 go to pay old mortgages, and the remaining $10,000,000 to build three bridges across the Mississippi—one at McGregor, one at LaCrosse and one at Sabula—and to replace iron with steel rails where iron rails are now in use. The instrument is recorded in twenty-six counties in Iowa and Minnesota, the recording fees being $13 in each county.

—The Montreal Herald lately contained the report of a curious trial of the Witness newspaper for libel. That paper had an article giving the particulars of a spree engaged in by a party of young men, at the end of which one of them attempted suicide. After the trial was ended it was found that six of the jurymen were Englishmen and six Frenchmen The Frenchmen could not speak English and had not understood a word of the evidence. One-half of the jury could not converse with the other half. But they all agreed to a verdict of guilty. The trial ended at night, and four of the jurymen asked leave to stay in the Court House, as they could not find their way home.

The Daily Freeman.

Kingston, Friday Morning, April 24.

Inasmuch as the government must have troops on duty at Little Rock to prevent bloodshed and riot between the contending factions, it would be a good thing if some cooler-headed fellow than Colonel Rose were in command of them. The Colonel is too impetuous and boisterous. He plainly thinks himself called upon to produce a row in order that he may glorify himself by suppressing it. Our dispatches say that "hot words" were used between him and a Colonel White, one of Brooks' vagabond brigade. Now, let Rose wither away and the ghost of Gen. Halleck or some other more peaceful shade hang out upon his forsaken stem.

The Troy Times thinks Eastman's rapid transit bill was killed by his caustic remarks about the Railroad Committee a short time ago. Now, is that so? How mistaken we may be sometimes; we thought it was the Commodore's money that killed Eastman's bill; yet if the Times says not, we give up, of course. But the Commodore has money and he has a rapid transit bill which he wants to put through; and, therefore, how natural was our mentally associating the two. And the Commodore is so well acquainted with the ways of the moving men to do his bidding, too! So, he didn't try to buy votes; we are really glad to know that on so good authority as that of the Times.

Great and progressive nations always spread their language with their ideas. It will hardly be doubted that the two great English-speaking peoples, England and America, exert a greater influence to-day upon the rest of the world, to shape and mould it, than any other two nations. Wherever they touch they not only speak their native tongue but impress the desirableness of learning it on the minds of other peoples. Bayard Taylor in his letters now being written from Egypt mentions the fact that a man speaking English only can now make himself understood by the natives to a degree not dreamed of twenty years ago. It is not possible to give all the reasons which appear to point in that direction in this place, but we are growingly of the opinion that the English is one day destined to be the widest known language of the globe. No other is so well adapted to universality; it is comprehensive enough for all purposes and at the same time capable of accurately expressing the minutest shade of poetic or philosophic thought. Whoever lives at the end of the next century may hear the tongue of New York and London spoken as familiarly in Jerusalem as was the Hebrew in the days of Christ.—What a desirable consummation that would be travelers and scholars can imagine.

Our State Savings Banks.

The State Superintendent of Banks has included in his forthcoming report a showing in regard to the savings banks which is everything but encouraging. It seems that during the year ending January 1st, 1874, the aggregate deposits in all the banks was only $233,000 over those of the year before. With the sole exception of the year 1862, when there was a decrease, these are the smallest figures for any year since 1858. During the latter half of the year just closed there was a withdrawal of nearly $8,000,000 in excess of money lodged and interest credited. To account for this, several facts need to be considered. Savings banks, it must be remembered, sustain more intimate relations to the condition and prosperity of our great working population than any others. They are a sort of thermometer to tell when labor can afford to lay by a dollar and when it cannot. When the surplus in these banks is large, two inferences at least are perfectly fair to be drawn from the fact: First, that work is abundant and remunerative, and, second, that the laborer is disposed to economize and invest a part of his wages against the inevitable rainy day. On the other hand, when the surplus is small, and, still more, when there is a tendency to draw out deposits, it follows that work is slack and labor is living upon the savings of other years. Making due allowance for exceptional cases, this upon the whole is necessarily true. Why, then, was there a small increase in the surplus over former years for the year just ended and why the large withdrawal of funds by depositors? The answer has many sides, as the net result comes from a complication of causes, but the case has two or three salient and tangible features. The Chicago and Boston fires, by destroying about $25,000,000 worth of property, deranged the business of the whole country and took more or less money from every man and woman in it. The insurance companies being suddenly called upon to pay unheard-of losses were, many of them, entirely broken up and many more seriously crippled. And so far as the stockholders in the insurance companies were at the same time depositors in the savings banks, it would naturally follow that one must suffer with the other. But a more important consideration remains behind: the general distrust of the financial policy of the government and an ignorant suspicion on the part of thousands of the stability and soundness of all moneyed institutions contributed to the panic of last fall and the consequent withdrawal of the deposits. The deranged state of business and manufactures of all kinds, throwing the laborer out of employment altogether or giving him only uncertain and fitful work to do, has brought in ten thousand households the pinch of poverty and called into use what few dollars they might have had in the bank.

Grant's Second Vicksburgh.

President Grant's veto of the inflation bill was a pleasant surprise. To be candid we hardly expected it, but we are no less grateful to its author, for he has done a substantial service to the country. It must not be forgotten that it required considerable moral courage for him to do it, as his most intimate political friends were the most urgent advocates of the most wholesale inflation.

It is not that this veto stops the issue of an important amount of greenbacks and national bank notes, but that it blocks the progress of inflation, interposing the President with the immense power of the veto athwart the swelling stream of the inflation idea. Inflation is like drinking rum, the habit grows by what it feeds upon, and the inflationist who to-day could hardly summon the cheek to ask for five hundred millions of greenbacks, would next year think it a very reasonable thing to pile a couple of hundred millions more on top of that. Once started on the wild torrent and we must take the whirlpools and rapids and cataracts as they come. The President has by this message put himself in direct and positive antagonism to the inflation idea, and that means that to carry out their plans the inflationists must send one-third more members to Congress.

The veto is of incalculable good as far as it goes, and it goes as far as a veto can. But a veto is only of negative good; it only prevents. This veto prevents a bad bill from becoming a law. It must be followed by a positive system of finance, and that system must look to resumption.

As we have heretofore stated, there is no statesman of finance in the United States who can put in an absolutely fixed sum the exact amount of currency the country needs. It is incapable of being fixed, as to be neither scarce nor redundant it must correspond exactly to those needs, and they are shifting. If four hundred millions are required in February, five hundred millions would be insufficient for May, while August would get along easily with three hundred and fifty. There is but one system that can accommodate itself exactly and without violent and disturbed friction, and that is free banking, made secure by ample pledges of bonds and reserve requirements that shall be just alike to the banks and the public, with the further imperative provision that every dollar bill presented at the bank's counter shall command gold or legal tender. This is the flexible currency so much in request, and is the only kind that ever will be found practicable. Under this system currency will flow in and out as the tides of business ebb and flow. The good work inaugurated or at least hinted at by Grant's veto must be made complete by Congress passing a bill of the character above indicated.

CURRENT TOPICS.

—Ohio is pretty thoroughly disgusted with its Democratic Legislature.

—What a pity that impertinent visit of Logan, Carpenter and Butler at the White House was all for nothing.

—The Newburgh Journal thinks there will have to be a new party unless the Republican repudiates Morton, Butler & Co.

—This is an unkind cut. The Rochester Express wants Tupper to come over in a French steamer.

—The most intensely jubilant paper over the veto was the Albany Journal. It had a long leader and nine smaller articles referring to it.

—The first mate of the Amerique has committed suicide. Why didn't he do it a few days before the wreck and thus earn the thanks of the consignees of a valuable cargo?

—Thurlow Weed's condemnation of the new Capitol extravagance is very timely, and the names he suggests for a new commission are excellent.

—It is a good time now to take fresh hope in regard to business. Since the veto the prospects of a steady, legitimate business are fifty per cent. better than when all was uncertain.

—Here is a man who should be honored among men: General F. A. Walker, who now holds a professorship in Yale College, refuses to accept any salary from the government for the work he is doing on the census report.

—John A. Logan got very black in the face, Morton gesticulated violently and Sime Cameron despaired of the Keystone State when the veto was read, but these gentlemen are of no consequence except on the stump and as disbursers of campaign funds.

—The Bald Eagle gets his feathers ruffled sometimes. Hon. Mr. Hammond accused the Speaker of arbitrariness the other evening, and the Honorable James intimated that if Hammond repeated the offense the Sergeant-at-Arms would take charge of him.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—The dead Elder Knapp believed firmly in a personal devil, who walked the earth in the form of a Universalist minister, or an editor.

—A girl only twelve years of age, belonging in Wapello, Iowa, has passed an examination before the county superintendent of schools, and has received a license to teach.

—It is said that a popular lecturer recently kept an audience up until half past ten to listen to his argument in favor of going to bed promptly at nine.

—An Iowa Granger thinks that there is too much lawyer in our politics, and that as a nation we have gradually given up to the lawyer nearly every place of honor and trust.

—The Board of Excise of Rochester furnish the women of that city with blank forms and copies of the law, to be served on saloon keepers, not to sell to husbands when forbidden by their wives.

—Capt. Logan, of Danville, Ky., gave his sheep a mixture of salt and ashes lately, and the next day found 40 out of 71 dead. He wants to know which killed them—the salt or the ashes?

—A large boat built in the country, five miles back from the water, was hauled to Belfast, Me., the other day, by fourteen yoke of oxen, and two spans of horses, and was launched.

—The Supreme Court of Austria has just decided that a marriage blessed by an Old Catholic cure is not valid in a civil point of view, the state not having as yet recognized that body.

—The carrying away, last fall, of the bluff at Long Branch lessens the distance between the hotels and the surf very materially. This will be appreciated by those who have an antipathy to walking.

—The following statement is from the Hartford Post: "The Hill brothers, farmers, near Hayden's station, are the proud owners of a cow which turns the scales at 3,600 pounds.—She is six years old, and was raised by her present owners."

—The Massachusetts Anglers' Association having become convinced, from the result of their investigations, that smelt during the spawning season are not healthy food, since they then are full of parasites, have procured the passage of a law to prevent taking them at that time.

—The supreme court of South Carolina has recently decided that, in that state, all judicial sales of real estate must be made by the sheriffs, and that a decree in a foreclosure suit, deciding the mortgaged premises to be sold by a special referee, is in contravention of law.

—A clergyman at the examination of the young scholars of his Sunday school put the following question: "Why did the people of Israel set up a golden calf?" "Because they hadn't money enough to set up an ox," was the reply of a little chap, who took a dollar and cents view of the matter.

—During the performance of "Meg Merriles" by Charlotte Cushman, in Washington last week, she created a profound sensation. On Friday Mme. Nilsson was present in the audience, and during the performance stood up in her box, clapping her hands and shouting "Bravo! Bravo!"—declaring subsequently that it was the most remarkable performance she had ever witnessed.

—An exchange notes the rumor that Donati, the great astronomer, died from excitement consequent upon discovering that the earth is approaching the sun so rapidly that in ten years it will be drawn into the sun and shriveled up. The paragraphist then adds the decidedly American comment that "This will be discouraging news to the insurance companies."

—The Charleston, S. C., News and Courier states that shortly after Gov. Moses visited the state penitentiary on a recent Sunday twenty-seven convicts were discharged. The Governor's Private Secretary says that only five were pardoned, and if twenty-seven were released it was without the Governor's knowledge.—Then, to complicate matters still more, no record could be found at the State House of the pardon of five, even.

—Joaquin Miller, the wild California poet, found Geneva full of his countrymen, and asked to be taken to some place where there were no Americans. The boatman looked at him for a moment, then hopelessly up and down the lake and away across toward Mont Blanc, and at last shook his head; but suddenly a new idea seemed to strike him, and he lifted his eyes toward heaven.

—Mayor Sayre of Utica has issued a proclamation directing the enforcement of the wide tire ordinance. The ordinance is number fifty-one, and provides that no person shall, on any wagon, cart or vehicle, carry on the streets of the city a weight of 2,000 lbs., or any greater weight less than 4,000 pounds, unless the tires on said vehicle shall be at least three inches in width; or to carry 4,000 pounds or upwards unless the tires on said vehicle shall be at least four inches in width.

Gladstone, in a speech reviewing the budget, said he regarded the reduction of a penny in the income tax an important step toward the abolition of tax. He approved the removal of duties on sugar, but opposed the abolition of horse licenses. He attacked the method proposed for the relief of local taxation, because the question next year would be prejudiced by this year's legislation. He generally congratulated Sir Stafford Northcote, Chancellor of the Exchequer, on the favorable exhibit of finances which he had been enabled to lay before the House.

SUGAR DUTIES ABOLISHED.

ARKANSAS AFFAIRS.

A New Movement by Baxter.

LITTLE ROCK, April 23.—Secretary of State Johnson, whose election has never been controverted, called at the State House this forenoon and ordered Brooks and his men out of his office. They refused to go and Brooks said since Johnson had signed Baxter's proclamation convening the Legislature and refused to recognize him as Governar, he would refuse to recognize him as Secretary of State. Johnson then went and applied to Col. Rose for troops to assist him in taking possession of his office. The result is not yet known. All is quiet to-day. There are no hostile demonstrations.

METROPOLITAN NEWS.

The Emigrant Question.

NEW YORK, April 23.—President Hurlbut of the Emigration Commission has addressed a communication to Governor Dix, stating that unless emigrant head money be again fixed at two and and a half dollars there will be a large deficit annually to be provided by other means. For the current year the board will need $225,000 more than they are likely to receive from emigrants. Means must be provided or Ward's Island must be abandoned and the inmates of its hospitals, nurseries, refuge building and lunatic asylum must be handed over to the Commissioners of Charities and Correction to add to the enormous burden of taxation of the city. By the 1st of May this commission will have expended the $100,000 recently borrowed and all receipts of the current year to that date. Should no further means be supplied or provided the almost immediate abandonment of the island institution will be absolutely necessary.

A TRAGIC DEATH OF A BRIDE.

At East Meadow, L. The horse only stopped by falling into a ditch and breaking both legs, dragging after him the body of the lady.

The maximum commissions to local agents was fixed at fifteen per cent. Adjourned sine die.

THE MISSISSIPPI FLOOD.

Piteous Appeals from Sufferers—Particulars of the Freshet.

NEW ORLEANS, April 23.—The state authorities receive letters daily from persons in the overflowed sections, asking for provisions, &c. The following extracts from them are fair specimens:

A letter dated Simmsport, Avoyelles parish, addressed to the Governor, says: "Please send me some supplies, as I have a large family—nine children—to keep up and feed. The water is three feet deep in my yard and over all my place. It is utterly impossible for me to get anything for my family to eat without calling on you for assistance. Please for pity's sake do not fail to send me some supplies by return steamer."

The following are extracts from a letter to the Governor dated Big Bend, Avoyelles Parish: "The whole Bayou des Glaizes and Red River front is entirely overflowed. All of us are bankrupt. We have no money, no credit. The commission merchants have all shut down or us and we have no provisions. Many of us are in a manner starving. The water is all over the country and is still rising. The cows that are not drowned are dying for want of food. Sheep and hogs are drowned by hundreds. Take this matter into consideration and see if something cannot be done for us."

The Governor to-day received a letter from Charleston, St. Mary's parish, which says: "Among the many sufferers by the recent overflow are those who have lived on the east side of Bayou Teche, on Bayou Chenez, Bayou Pigeon, on the shores of Grand Lake and Lake Chicot, all of which districts are now submerged, leaving some 300 families in a state of utter destitution."

General Jeff. Thompson, Chief State Engineer, returned to-day from the upper coast. He states that the storm which commenced on Thursday of last week and continued until Sunday caused the crevasses on the west side of the river to increase rapidly in width. The crevasse near Port Hudson at Longwood and Virginia plantations is now three-quarters of a mile wide, though only about three feet deep, the levee being a very small one from three to four feet in height. The crevasse heretofore reported as having occurred in Morganza bend, below New Texas landing, is in what is known as the Van Pelt Morganza levee, between the original Morganza levee and Grand Levee. The break is now about 4,000 feet wide in the new levee, which was about 13 feet high. The flow of water through this is checked by the old levee in front and a dense growth of cottonwood between the two levees. In the old levee there are four breaks, aggregating about 800 feet. The Hyckey crevasse below Baton Rouge is now 1,500 feet wide and seven feet deep, the water passing through at a velocity of eight miles an hour. General Thompson reports another crevasse at Lake Side plantation, Point Coupe parish. He states that about twenty sugar plantations have been covered by water from Hyckey's and that hundreds of poor families living on the bayous have been drowned out. The Bonnett Carre crevasse is now 700 feet wide and four feet deep. In the centre, where the levee is entirely gone, the water is cutting a channel. The McCullem crevasse, below Baton Rouge, will probably be closed in a few days. Though these breaks are comparatively small, the water from them has already covered many large plantations and driven out the poor people living behind them.

No mail trains arrived by either the Jackson or Mobile roads yesterday. They are detained two days by bridges being carried away. The northwestern mails now due by the Jackson road are coming by boat from Vicksburg.

A gentleman who reached this city to-day from the flooded parishes states that Tangepahoa, Tyckafu and Amite rivers were swollen by rains from Thursday to Sunday, completely overflowing their banks and spreading over the country on either side for miles. The people are fleeing to the highlands.

It is estimated that the water is three feet higher than ever known before. Amite River rose very rapidly. Several children are reported drowned in the streets of Port Vincent, which was overflowed. The flat country of St. Helena, Livingston, Tangepahoa, Washington, St. Tammany & East Feliciana parishes are flooded for miles.

The Times says a gentleman from the upper coast gives the most appalling description of the condition of the people who live in the district overflowed by the Hyckey crevasse. He says that not less than twenty splendid sugar plantations have been submerged from that source already. That, however, was nothing compared with sufferings of people on Sunday last. The gentleman witnessed a large number of persons wading their way out of the torrents of water which passed through that break. Among them were women in water up to their arm pits, holding their infants above their heads, and it was reported that some had been floated away on the rushing tide with their little ones in their arms.

Bayou Grasse Tete advices state that there is now from three to four feet of water on the east side of the bayou, and it is expected that the water will overflow the west side. The water is backing up Bayou Plaquemine as far as Durdemer's pantation and will probably reach the town of Bayou Goula on the Mississippi River. Mayor Wiltz has been applied to for immediate relief to be sent to the Grasse Tete country. The recent rains continue and there are floods in the Ouachita and Red River valleys.

Customs receipts $255,000. Treasury disbursements $75,000. Money rose to 7 at one time during the day, but closed at 4@5. Sterling quiet at from $4.85½@4.86 for 60 days, $4.88½@4.88¾ for sight. Railroad bonds quiet in late dealings, with prices a fraction lower. A day of greater depression without panic has hardly ever been known at the Stock Exchange. Prices have had very few rallies and the decline has been large, many stocks being as low as before inflation was talked of and some of them nearly down to the figures made during the panic, and when the Stock Exchange was closed. During the last hour of business the stock market was very unsettled; feverishness and depression characterized dealings. The lowest quotations of the day were generally made, Northwest common showing a decline of 4¼ per cent. from the highest point, Western Union, Wabash and St. Paul common 3¾@4 per cent, and Rock Island, Northwest preferred, Union Pacific, Hannibal and St. Joseph and Pacific Mail 1¾ to 3¼ per cent. New York Central. Lake Shore, Ohios, C., C. & I. C., Delaware, Lackawanna & Western and Atlantic & Pacific preferred showed a decline of over 1 per cent. in final dealings. There was a final recovery from the lowest price for the general list. The enormous depreciation in values noticed above depleted the margin of many small speculators and there was consequently a steady stream of long stock poured on the market, which operated against any material recovery. The temper of speculation is decidedly bearish; more so than for a long time past, and the bull element seems to be completely demoralized. Wabash, Northwest, Union Pacific and Western Union were heavily pressed for sale outside of Wall street. The feeling was that the total defeat of the Senate bill is a blessing.

GENERAL NEWS.

—The President of the Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad says the road cannot live under the new restrictive law of that state.

—The St. Louis Globe speculatese concerning the obituary of the future. We append one or two specimens:

Charles Pupker; 3½ pounds; cremated July 9, 1772.

For wife of above see third pickle bottle on next shelf.

Little Tommy. Burnt up September 16th, 1862.

Jane Matilda Perkins. Oct. 3, 1869. Put up by the Alden Corpse Cremating Company. None genuine without signature.

—The following story comes from Vienna: It is said the pianist Listz found himself recently in the company of a number of ladies, who begged him in hyperbolical terms to procure for them "the ecstacies, the artistic raptures, which his magnificent talent inevitably produces." He obligingly seated himself at the piano and played. When he had finished some of his admirers had fainted. "Well," said Listz, "I played wrong notes all through intentionally; so badly indeed, that I should have been turned out of doors at any elementary school of music!"

—The Elkader, Iowa, Journal says the Recorder of Clayton county has just received for record a mortgage from the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad to Russell Sage and Levi P. Morton of New York for the modest sum of $35,000,000. $25,000,000 go to pay old mortgages, and the remaining $10,000,000 to build three bridges across the Mississippi—one at McGregor, one at LaCrosse and one at Sabula—and to replace iron with steel rails where iron rails are now in use. The instrument is recorded in twenty-six counties in Iowa and Minnesota, the recording fees being $13 in each county.

—The Montreal Herald lately contained the report of a curious trial of the Witness newspaper for libel. That paper had an article giving the particulars of a spree engaged in by a party of young men, at the end of which one of them attempted suicide. After the trial was ended it was found that six of the jurymen were Englishmen and six Frenchmen The Frenchmen could not speak English and had not understood a word of the evidence. One-half of the jury could not converse with the other half. But they all agreed to a verdict of guilty. The trial ended at night, and four of the jurymen asked leave to stay in the Court House, as they could not find their way home.

§ 2. Such affidavit, when so made, shall be presented to the surrogate of the county in which such real estate is situated, and said surrogate may, in his discretion, examine any witness or witnesses, under oath, as to the truth of the matters, in such affidavit stated, and, upon being satisfied of the truth of all such matters, shall indorse upon such affidavit his certificate thereof, and thereupon the said affidavit thus indorsed, together with the proof so taken, shall be recorded in the county clerk's office of the county or counties where such lands are situated, unless there be a register's office in such county, in which case the same shall be recorded in such register's office in the same book and manner as deeds are now recorded; and from the date of such record, said affidavit, record and proof shall be taken and regarded in all courts and legal proceedings in this state, in respect to the succession of such real estate, as presumptive evidence of the facts therein contained, and by this act required to be stated.

CITY NOTES.

—To-morrow (Saturday) is St. Mark's Day.

—"Sweet are the uses of advertisements."

—The rain storm of Thursday increased the freshet in the creek, which was subsiding.

—The New York, Kingston & Syracuse Railroad Company on Wednesday received five new platform cars.

—Many families in this city are now struggling through the annual throes of house-cleaning.

—The steamer Norwich of Cornell's towing line, minus her smokestack, is at the foundry dock repairing.

—On Thursday 97 canal boats laden with 12,447 tons of coal reached tide water through the Delaware & Hudson Canal.

—It is so difficult to fix the geography of the spring bonnet that many females inadvertently wear it wrong side before and upside down.

—James Kerley offers a reward of $200 for the recovery of the goods stolen from his store on the 13th inst.

—The re-modeling of Mr. Alva S. Staples' residence on Abeel street having been completed, it is now undergoing external and internal decoration.

—The greatest number of tons of coal received at this port by the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company this season arrived on Thursday.

—Last fall's bonnets that have been several times sat on, or been used by the children for a foot ball, are the most recherche and desirable for spring wear.

—The unsightly wooden shed which was over the sidewalk on the Weber building, corner of Union avenue and Abeel street, has been removed, and the building is greatly improved thereby.

—Street Superintendent Hasbrouck has issued a proclamation requiring parties to first get permission before emptying ash heaps into the street, and when permission is obtained lanterns must be displayed at night. Sensible order. We have already had three upsets for lack of such an order heretofore.

—While the Ulster County Express was running along the Erie road at a rattling pace on its way home Wednesday night it uncoupled the rear car as usual at Turner's without slacking its speed, and thereby left Mr. C. D. Roosa and the car together on the switch. He came home via Newburgh.

—One of the most interesting men of this city to unfold a tale that will harrow the soul, freeze the blood and make the hair stand on end is Jack Suydam, when telling his experience during his travels in Texas and Louisiana. He always has a crowd of listeners, who sit with mouths and eyes stretched wide open swallowing the details, and we think it nothing more than just to inform these folks that Morgan A. Dayton says Jack is only fooling when he says he's been to Texas; that he has been on Long Island all winter taking care of his horse Constance.

Religious.

Rev. Alfred H. Fahnestock, of Princeton, N. J., will preach in the Rondout Presbyterian Church on Sunday next.

Opening of the State Canals.

The Canal Commissioners have decided to open the canals of the state to-morrow, Saturday, April 25th.

Temperance Meeting.

There will be a Temperance meeting at the Wilbur Chapel this evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Ackerley and several other speakers will be present. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Barn Burned.

On Saturday morning last, at 3 o'clock A. M., a barn belonging to Clinton Deyo, who resides on the County House Plains in this town, was destroyed by fire. Also a quantity of hay and farm implements. Loss $2,500; insured for $500. The fire was no doubt the work of a tramp.—New Paltz Times.

Reported Sale of the Press Office.

Duncan C. McMillan has, we understand from good authority, bought the Press office uptown and all the personal property belonging to the same. Mr. Daniel Bradbury, its former editor, we understand will attend exclusively to the post-office. The politics of the paper under the new management are to be somewhat conservative.

Lindenwald.

The residence of the late ex-President Van Buren has again changed ownership and been sold to A. E. & F. E. Wagner, of Kinderhook. A small portion of the farm has been reserved by John Van Buren, the late owner. The palatial mansion and former resort of many visiting distinguished statesmen, has now passed into other hands.—Hudson Star.

More Car Accommodation.

Superintendent Dumont of the horse railroad, being advised that there are many persons who reside in the upper portion of the city whose daily avocations call them to the lower portion at an early hour, will this (Friday) morning and during its requirement put on a car which will leave the western terminus of the road at 6:20 A. M. As heretofore the 6 A. M. car will continue to run.

Sale of Cows.

Last Wednesday Sime Westbrook, the auctioneer, sold twenty-one milch cows on the farm of Supervisor Myer and brother in the town of Kingston. The prices paid for these animals varied from $23 to $76 each, while the general average was $43. The sale was a lively one, and the cows went off readily. Mr. Myer and brother intend to give up the milk traffic and engage hereafter entirely in raising hay and grain.

Tows.

The following were yesterday's tows:

Steamer Marshal and Valentine—Ice barge E. Corning, Wallabout, plug Mary Bennett, barge John Darrow, boat Spaulding, Agnes, Sherman & Knapp, Geo. A. Dudley to New York.

Propeller I. M. North—No. 121 to Newburgh.

East Kingston Notes.

A busy, enterprising little burgh is this, nestled on the bank of the Hudson just north of your city line. We have not corner-stoned our City Hall yet, as there is some delay in getting the charter; but we are building, improving and progressing steadily without any regard to the spasmodic contraction and inflation of the currency. Mr. E. M. Brigham is running his cement mill with a full force of men, having mined an unusual quantity of stone during the past winter, which he is now crushing up into a commercial shape at the rate of 500 barrels per day. The wages, however, have not yet attained to the usual summer rates, and the men, having been compelled to trade at the company's store, are in many instances still in arrears for the winter months. By the way, this store is a pretty heavy institution, doing more business perhaps than any two retail grocery firms in your city, and but for the strange policy of wide margins they would do vastly more. O. H. Brigham, the genial son, is extensively engaged in the manufacture of choice cigars, employing a large number of men and boys of the business regularly, and keeping a general agent on the road introducing his peculiar brands of the manufactured weed; and yet he is unable to supply the growing demand. A large and substantial building for the purpose of this manufactory is to be erected at once, and an additional force of professionals put on. He is also breeding fancy poultry and Berkshire pigs; look out for him at the pumpkin-show. We also have a photographic gentleman with a camera in our midst, who does a little sun-painting now and then; also, a blacksmith, who is a scientific workman and a cooper as well. The various ice houses that so thickly stud the border of the rippling brook at this place are now quietly sleeping around their several "iciferous" masses profoundly dreaming of mint juleps and sherry cobblers, or "cream-for-two," that cools the tongue and warms the heart 'neath the moon-lit elm.—Ice men are working night and day shipping stacks secured from the various inland lakes and ponds during the winter. The jolly fishermen are preparing for the spring catch, and some are already casting their nets and eagerly watching for the glistening beauties of the Hudson.

The Sayre Lime Road is perhaps the newsiest little institution we have. Accidents and sensational reports are of daily occurrence there. The management of the road is changed almost monthly, and each new man seems to find little trouble getting into the usual amount of mishaps and bad luck generally. Indeed, they now have these little accidents so systematized that it takes very little time to rig up again and be ready for another smash-up. New "bumpers" and duplicate parts of cars are kept on hand and ready for use, and a competent machinist is steadily employed to repair damages. Mr. Davis, the man now in charge, has managed to get in the usual share of delays and break-downs very gracefully, the latest being the novel feat of a horse falling through the trestle at a point twenty feet from the ground, taking a small army of men several hours to extricate him. Since then the cars have been quietly cooling their heated journals, planning the next experiment in gravitation. During the winter a large platform scales has been placed in the track, which of course took several months. The capacity of the road, as demonstrated thus far, being an average of about ten tons of stone per day, the new scales were a necessity. If Mr. Sayre has not seen this little road of his I think he ought to do so at once, as no map or words of his superintendent can fully describe to him the wonderful achievement of engineering skill evinced in the location and grade of this short railroad. Near the intersection of this road with the public highway, Mr. L. M. Davis is erecting a grocery store; having purchased the old "Burhans store," a landmark of upper Kingston, corner Clinton avenue and Pearl street, he designs moving it here. So you see we shall have an historical lot of old lumber in our midst; a roof that has kept dry many a joke and gave and sheltered for a time tons of gossip and chunks of good cheer. Besides the Chapel, which is in good working order and indispensable, our Catholic brethren have a new church under way. We hear no more of the "boat club" that once pulled such saucy blades; it has slightly "fizzled" perhaps; but a temperance lodge is being organized, I believe (I can't give up drinking myself), and several meetings have been held. A post-office has frequently been proposed and would be a convenience; but we are way past that now, and a telegraph station is agitating the public mind and will probably drop down upon us some fine morning. The farmers of the vicinity—I had almost forgotten to speak of our best friends—are wide-awake fellows; raise good crops and know how to market them too; oh, the choice pears and other fruits! The blossom-buds are abundant and promising.—No better lands feed vegetation than these rolling acres of clay. If you don't believe it try to buy one of these farms. In conclusion I would submit that "East Kingston" is not an appropriate name for this growing settlement, as that title more properly belongs to the eastern division of your city. Who will suggest a more appropriate as well as euphonious title? South Flatbush might perhaps be better.

REX.

The New Prospect Church.

The Connitt case seems to have cost the New Prospect Church considerable. It finally won the case, but the expenses are, we think, more than the church property is worth: Some discussion ensuing in regard to the New Prospect Church troubles, the Elder present from that church was requested to make a statement of its affairs. He stated that the church owed its counsel in the Connitt litigation $1,258. The incidental expenses of the litigation were $814.25. The total indebtedness of the church from this cause was $2,072.26. If the church had to bear this burden alone he feared it would be crushed, and he hoped the Classis would sympathize with with and help them. The use of parsonage premises in the way of rent had still to be determined by the Referee. The counsel of the congregation thought they might recover from that quarter $550. A member of the Classis moved that the pastors and consistories of the several churches be requested to solicit contributions to assist the New Prospect Church in defraying these expenses. The motion was amended by appointing the pastor and elder of the church a committee to collect subscriptions. After considerable discussion the motion as amended was carried.

Railroad Accident.

Emmet Gregory of Stamford, Delaware county, a young man employed on a freight train on the N. Y., K. & S. Railroad, while coming east with his train on Thursday morning and on top of a car, was struck in the face and very severely injured by coming in contact with the bridge at West Hurley. The wounded man was brought to this city and conveyed to the office of Dr. Kennedy, who dressed his injuries and cared for him until the afternoon train, bound west, left this city, when young Gregory was sent to his home.

Accident.

On Wednesday afternoon while Mr. Elias T. Van Nostrand, a builder of this city, was entering the new building now in course of construction by him for Mr. John O'Reilly on Union ave., near the new City Hall, Mr. Van Nostrand was being followed by two men when the plank reaching from the sidewalk to the door of the building, and upon which they were walking broke, causing Mr. Van Nostrand to fall upon a pile of planks, lacerating the flesh on one arm in a very painful manner, and inflicting some severe bruises upon other portions of his body.

The Gold Hunters of the Shawangunks.

Last year we published an article written by one of our reporters, describing a trip to Lake Awosting on the Shawangunk mountains, in which an account was given of the visit of Benny Depuy to the cave of the old Indian Ninety-nine, and the vast amount of treasure he saw there. Since that time a great deal of speculation has been had concerning the whereabouts of this cave, and a number of persons have hunted the mountain over in a vain attempt to find the hidden treasure. Many supposed a huge boulder had fallen at the entrance of the cavern, thus hiding it from the sight of man.

A few months ago a story was circulated through Ellenville that a man who resided in New York city had interviewed an Indian 104 years old in the far west during the Modoc war, and that this Indian said he once resided at Port Hixon in Ulster county and that when he left that place there was a rich gold mine in this vicinity. The old chief further gave some directions concerning its locality, but which the New York gentleman had partly forgotten. Some Ellenville chaps hearing this story hastened to the city and found the interviewer, who by the way was a newspaper reporter, and for a sum of money received from him the whole story, and where the Indian could be found. The chief was sent for, but refused to come, as he was old and feared the journey would be more than he could bear; however, for a trifle he enlarged on his former description, and with great minuteness told the exact spot where the gold could be found. The Indian said the hunter must go down the creek until he came to a place between Port Hixon and Middleport, opposite the Bruyn House; then he must face toward the mountain and walk direct towards its summit. About half way up the mountain would be found a large pine tree with a mark on it. From this tree the hunter must turn a little to the left and in an oblique direction proceed still farther up the mountain until he came to a bunch of laurels in a swampy piece of ground. A short distance from this bunch of laurels would be found a large bare spot, and upon this place the person must stand with his face towards the east. When the sun rose in the morning if it shone directly in his face, then he must stoop down and commence to dig. If the sun did not shine in his face, then he must change his position until it would shine according to the directions of the chief.

This piece of information created a profound sensation among the gold hunters, and they immediately proceeded to make the search.—After an immense sight of labor had been done hunting for the place, the party at last tho't they had hit the exact spot and camped out all night. It was a bitter cold night, and they came very near freezing, only to find in the morning the sun was covered with clouds so it was impossible to tell where its first rays would touch. They were so sure it was the place that the whole day was used up in digging and blasting out a big hole in the side of the mountain. No cave or mine was found however, and the party were so discouraged they gave up the expedition in disgust. Since that time a number of other chaps have taken hold of the case, and are working it up in a splendid manner. These folks first make sure of the right spot, and then buy or lease several acres of land in the vicinity, so when the gold is unearthed, their title to the same will be secure. The persons most interested in the matter lately, besides those named in The Freeman a short time ago, are Jake Sherman, Ben D. Hornbeck, Isaac Bush and Jemmy Phillips. The sound of the pick and drill can be heard at all hours of the night, while heavy blasts reverberate through the mountain. Immense holes are blasted in the rocks, and still larger ones are scooped out of the morass.—We are in expectation every day of hearing something startling from that part of the county, and our reporter is on the qui vive to receive the earliest report possible.

The Greene and Ulster Baptist Quarterly Conference.

For many years there has existed a local missionary enterprise called "The Greene and Ulster Baptist Quarterly Conference," but for wise reasons this society was disbanded Wednesday, 15th instant, and the peculiar work forced upon it, viz., the work of giving partial support to feeble churches within its bounds raised up by its own missionaries, was turned over to the Hudson River Central Baptist Association. During its last session the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That our hearty thanks are hereby returned to our brother, Hon. Thomas Cornell, for his generous and long-continued contributions to the treasury of this Conference, and also for his profound interest in its missionary work.

Resolved, That in closing our relations with our missionaries, Brethren F. K. Van Tassel, G. W. Slater and J. L. Smith, we cannot withhold the expression of our undiminished confidence in their piety, of our thanks for the fidelity with which they have served the Conference, and of admiration for their self-sacrificing zeal in missionary work. We do also commend them to the Missionary Boards of the Hudson River North and Central Associations as worthy of increased support as pastors of the churches with which they are now identified.

Steamboat Racing.

The Troy Times of Tuesday evening last says: "The steamboat Sunnyside, of the Citizens' Line, left the dock at New York, at 6:05 o'clock last evening, and upon coming out of the slip the captain saw the Schuyler, of the Hancox Line, lying under the stern of the Troy boat. Before the Sunnyside could get under headway the Schuyler passed under full head of steam and immediately hoisted a whip-pennant. The Sunnyside soon got under headway, and in less than half an hour passed the Schuyler above Manhattanville, maintaining a lead of some distance all the way up. A new broom has been hoisted to the mast on the stern of the boat, and whip-pennants will fly from both bow and stern staffs on the trip down to-night. Perhaps the people who trust their lives and property on these boats would be as well satisfied if these races should go out of fashion. We are opposed to racing, but are glad that our boat won."

"Perhaps the people who trust their lives and property on these boats would be as well satisfied if these races should go out of fashion," but it is a well established fact that so long as the racing is continued the people will insist on trusting their lives to the boat which oftenest comes out ahead.

A Driving Incident.

A lady who was driving through Pine street, a day or two since, had three children with her in the wagon—one on the front seat alongside of her and the other two on the rear seat. The animal attached to the vehicle has a queer habit of giving an occasional jerk, and sudden withal. Now the man who had prepared the establishment for the lady's use had neglected to secure the hind seat by bolting it, and when the horse started up with one of his sudden jerks the hind seat toppled over backward into the road, carrying with it the two children seated thereon. The lady not being aware of the accident was proceeding serenely down Pine street when she noticed people rushing toward a common center, and thinking there was a dog fight in progress behind her she glanced over her shoulder to see it, when she discovered the seat and the two innocents prone in the road. Not thinking of the little one on the seat beside her the lady vaulted from the wagon without stopping the horse and rushed after the two little ones left astern. Fortunately some spectator to the scene captured the horse, and the two children who were tumbled overboard were uninjured by their fall.

What She Did for Punctuality.

On Monday of last week there was an occurrence on the Harlem Extension Railroad, that is worth recounting. About nine in the morning of that day, a serious collision—a collision between a girl and a train of cars—was avoided in a very singular and daring way. The girl is a school teacher, and she was on her way to school. The train was from Chatham, on its way to Rutland. Both met on the trestle-work near Brainard's Station.—The girl stood still, while the alarmed engineer whistled down brakes, and managed to stop the train only when his engine was within ten feet of the obstruction. The trestle-work is thirty-six feet high, and bears only one course of ties, and only one track. "What do you mean—do you want to be killed?" inquired the engineer. "No," said the girl, "I'm going to school." "Well, go back until the train crosses the trestle," said the engineer. "I can't," she replied; "I'm late now." "Step aside, then," and she stepped aside, outside the track and on to the edge of the ties. But the space was too narrow; the engine's wheels could not clear her expanded skirts. Her next plan was to sit down, with her legs dangling between the ties; but thus the hoops spread all the wider. Provoking delay for the engineer, humiliating failure and posture for the schoolmarm. "Hold on," said she, "I'll fix it!" and then gathering up her limbs and her skirts, she stretched herself at full length upon the outer edge of the ties, seized underneath with one hand the string-piece to which the rail is spiked, and coolly bade the train pass on! In a minute the train moved over the prostrate form, without jar or jolt; and the next instant the girl was on her feet, hastening towards her expectant pupils, before whom she was determined to be "on time," though she disarranged a dozen railroad time-tables.—Albany Argus.

Our Railroad Gobblers.

The Litchfields seem to carry trouble to every railroad they take. The South Side Railroad appears to be in as much difficulty as they brought upon the old R. & O. R. R. Speaking of this railroad we must certainly have back that old title. That N. Y., K. & S. Railroad title represents nothing but fraud, deception, bankruptcy and brass.

VICINITY.

—Fishkill has a slaughter-house war.

—A troupe of female minstrels performed at Poughkeepsie Thursday night.

—Poughkeepsie's new city charter has passed both houses.

—Hobart is preparing extensively for city boarders.

—Stamford has a cow that gives 46 pounds of milk daily.

—Charley Spencer's receptions at Albany are the most elegant in the city.

—Callicoon is going to try the cultivation of tobacco.

—There will be two daily trains from Port Jervis to Monticello after the 1st of May.

—Brigham Young's nineteenth wife lectured in Newburgh on Tuesday evening. She was introduced by Hon. James G. Graham.

—A newspaper to be called the Express will soon be started at Callicoon. How soon it will stop has not been stated.

—Walden has raised $5,000 for the prosecution of parties who sell liquor without licenses.

—The Troy papers report racing between the Sunnyside and Schuyler. Stop such fooling, Thomas.

—Cooney in de Hollow is doomed in Westchester county. She has raised her bounty to $1.

—Three thousand visitors were attracted to Middletown by the public reception at the State Homeopathic Asylum for the Insane.

—Eastman Park has two calves with only one head between them. Poughkeepsie isn't so short of calves' heads as to necessitate such parsimony.

—Churches sometimes try all sorts of things with which to raise money, but the Pawling M. E. Church is a little ahead. It has had a "Polyodrama."

—Rhinebeck has a big turkey suit, the costs in which already amount to $100. Fourteen turkeys are in dispute, and forty witnesses went to Poughkeepsie Thursday to swear who they belong to.

—Poughkeepsie has another horror, but it isn't located in Ulster county this time. One of Poughkeepsie's best citizens was up before the Recorder on Tuesday for burying a horse alive.

—The building used as a school-house and chapel in Englewood, on the Palisades, on the Hudson River, fell to the foot of the precipice, Saturday, smashing it into splinters. Fortunately there was nobody in it at the time.

—The Rev. Thomas Barry, rector of St. Paul's mission chapel of Albany, held a service for deaf mutes in Rochester on Tuesday. He administered baptism to a goodly number, and presented a class of five to the Bishop for confirmation.

—The School Commissioners of Broome Co. licensed but 102 out of 228 teachers who attended their drills this spring. In many cases the applicants were possessed of the qualifications heretofore required, but the Commissioners have concluded to raise the standard of education in that county by requiring better qualifications on the part of teachers.

—Rafting began quite lively last week. Some seventy rafts passed this place Thursday, about three hundred on Friday, four hundred on Saturday, sixty-five on Sunday and about fifty yesterday. The river is quite high and is still steadily rising. The bulk of the timber has probably gone down and the lumbermen are in a fair way of once more being in funds. Seven hundred rafts is a large two days' work.—Port Jervis Union.

CITY NOTES.

—To-morrow (Saturday) is St. Mark's Day.

—"Sweet are the uses of advertisements."

—The rain storm of Thursday increased the freshet in the creek, which was subsiding.

—The New York, Kingston & Syracuse Railroad Company on Wednesday received five new platform cars.

—Many families in this city are now struggling through the annual throes of house-cleaning.

—The steamer Norwich of Cornell's towing line, minus her smokestack, is at the foundry dock repairing.

—On Thursday 97 canal boats laden with 12,447 tons of coal reached tide water through the Delaware & Hudson Canal.

—It is so difficult to fix the geography of the spring bonnet that many females inadvertently wear it wrong side before and upside down.

—James Kerley offers a reward of $200 for the recovery of the goods stolen from his store on the 13th inst.

—The re-modeling of Mr. Alva S. Staples' residence on Abeel street having been completed, it is now undergoing external and internal decoration.

—The greatest number of tons of coal received at this port by the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company this season arrived on Thursday.

—Last fall's bonnets that have been several times sat on, or been used by the children for a foot ball, are the most recherche and desirable for spring wear.

—The unsightly wooden shed which was over the sidewalk on the Weber building, corner of Union avenue and Abeel street, has been removed, and the building is greatly improved thereby.

—Street Superintendent Hasbrouck has issued a proclamation requiring parties to first get permission before emptying ash heaps into the street, and when permission is obtained lanterns must be displayed at night. Sensible order. We have already had three upsets for lack of such an order heretofore.

—While the Ulster County Express was running along the Erie road at a rattling pace on its way home Wednesday night it uncoupled the rear car as usual at Turner's without slacking its speed, and thereby left Mr. C. D. Reosa and the car together on the switch. He came home via Newburgh.

—One of the most interesting men of this city to unfold a tale that will harrow the soul, freeze the blood and make the hair stand on end is Jack Suydam, when telling his experience during his travels in Texas and Louisiana. He always has a crowd of listeners, who sit with mouths and eyes stretched wide open swallowing the details, and we think it nothing more than just to inform these folks that Morgan A. Dayton says Jack is only fooling when he says he's been to Texas; that he has been on Long Island all winter taking care of his horse Constance.

Religious.

Rev. Alfred H. Fahnestock, of Princeton, N. J., will preach in the Rondout Presbyterian Church on Sunday next.

Opening of the State Canals.

The Canal Commissioners have decided to open the canals of the state to-morrow, Saturday, April 25th.

Temperance Meeting.

There will be a Temperance meeting at the Wilbur Chapel this evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Ackerley and several other speakers will be present. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Barn Burned.

On Saturday morning last, at 3 o'clock A. M., a barn belonging to Clinton Deyo, who resides on the County House Plains in this town, was destroyed by fire. Also a quantity of hay and farm implements. Loss $2,500; insured for $500. The fire was no doubt the work of a tramp.—New Paltz Times.

Reported Sale of the Press Office.

Duncan C. McMillan has, we understand from good authority, bought the Press office uptown and all the personal property belonging to the same. Mr. Daniel Bradbury, its former editor, we understand will attend exclusively to the post-office. The politics of the paper under the new management are to be somewhat conservative.

Lindenwald.

The residence of the late ex-President Van Buren has again changed ownership and been sold to A. E. & F. E. Wagner, of Kinderhook. A small portion of the farm has been reserved by John Van Buren, the late owner. The palatial mansion and former resort of many visiting distinguished statesmen, has now passed into other hands.—Hudson Star.

More Car Accommodation.

Superintendent Dumont of the horse railroad, being advised that there are many persons who reside in the upper portion of the city whose daily avocations call them to the lower portion at an early hour, will this (Friday) morning and during its requirement put on a car which will leave the western terminus of the road at 6:20 A. M. As heretofore the 6 A. M. car will continue to run.

Sale of Cows.

Last Wednesday Sime Westbrook, the auctioneer, sold twenty-one milch cows on the farm of Supervisor Myer and brother in the town of Kingston. The prices paid for these animals varied from $23 to $76 each, while the general average was $43. The sale was a lively one, and the cows went off readily. Mr. Myer and brother intend to give up the milk traffic and engage hereafter entirely in raising hay and grain.

Tows.

The following were yesterday's tows:

Steamer Marshal and Valentine—Ice barge E. Corning, Wallabout, plug Mary Bennett, barge John Darrow, boat Spaulding, Agnes, Sherman & Knapp, Geo. A. Dudley to New York.

East Kingston Notes.

A busy, enterprising little burgh is this, nestled on the bank of the Hudson just north of your city line. We have not corner-stoned our City Hall yet, as there is some delay in getting the charter; but we are building, improving and progressing steadily without any regard to the spasmodic contraction and inflation of the currency. Mr. E. M. Brigham is running his cement mill with a full force of men, having mined an unusual quantity of stone during the past winter, which he is now crushing up into a commercial shape at the rate of 500 barrels per day. The wages, however, have not yet attained to the usual summer rates, and the men, having been compelled to trade at the company's store, are in many instances still in arrears for the winter months. By the way, this store is a pretty heavy institution, doing more business perhaps than any two retail grocery firms in your city, and but for the strange policy of wide margins they would do vastly more. O. H. Brigham, the genial son, is extensively engaged in the manufacture of choice cigars, employing a large number of men and boys of the business regularly, and keeping a general agent on the road introducing his peculiar brands of the manufactured weed; and yet he is unable to supply the growing demand. A large and substantial building for the purpose of this manufactory is to be erected at once, and an additional force of professionals put on. He is also breeding fancy poultry and Berkshire pigs; look out for him at the pumpkin-show. We also have a photographic gentleman with a camera in our midst, who does a little sun-painting now and then; also, a blacksmith, who is a scientific workman and a cooper as well. The various ice houses that so thickly stud the border of the rippling brook at this place are now quietly sleeping around their several "iciferous" masses profoundly dreaming of mint juleps and sherry cobblers, or "cream-for-two," that cools the tongue and warms the heart 'neath the moon-lit elm.—Ice men are working night and day shipping stacks secured from the various inland lakes and ponds during the winter. The jolly fishermen are preparing for the spring catch, and some are already casting their nets and eagerly watching for the glistening beauties of the Hudson.

The Sayre Lime Road is perhaps the newsiest little institution we have. Accidents and sensational reports are of daily occurrence there. The management of the road is changed almost monthly, and each new man seems to find little trouble getting into the usual amount of mishaps and bad luck generally. Indeed, they now have these little accidents so systematized that it takes very little time to rig up again and be ready for another smash-up. New "bumpers" and duplicate parts of cars are kept on hand and ready for use, and a competent machinist is steadily employed to repair damages. Mr. Davis, the man now in charge, has managed to get in the usual share of delays and break-downs very gracefully, the latest being the novel feat of a horse falling through the trestle at a point twenty feet from the ground, taking a small army of men several hours to extricate him. Since then the cars have been quietly cooling their heated journals, planning the next experiment in gravitation. During the winter a large platform scales has been placed in the track, which of course took several months. The capacity of the road, as demonstrated thus far, being an average of about ten tons of stone per day, the new scales were a necessity. If Mr. Sayre has not seen this little road of his I think he ought to do so at once, as no map or words of his superintendent can fully describe to him the wonderful achievement of engineering skill evinced in the location and grade of this short railroad. Near the intersection of this road with the public highway, Mr. L. M. Davis is erecting a grocery store; having purchased the old "Burhans store," a landmark of upper Kingston, corner Clinton avenue and Pearl street, he designs moving it here. So you see we shall have an historical lot of old lumber in our midst; a roof that has kept dry many a joke and gave and sheltered for a time tons of gossip and chunks of good cheer. Besides the Chapel, which is in good working order and indispensable, our Catholic brethren have a new church under way. We hear no more of the "boat club" that once pulled such saucy blades; it has slightly "fizzled" perhaps; but a temperance lodge is being organized, I believe (I can't give up drinking myself), and several meetings have been held. A post-office has frequently been proposed and would be a convenience; but we are way past that now, and a telegraph station is agitating the public mind and will probably drop down upon us some fine morning. The farmers of the vicinity—I had almost forgotten to speak of our best friends—are wide-awake fellows; raise good crops and know how to market them too; oh, the choice pears and other fruits! The blossom-buds are abundant and promising.—No better lands feed vegetation than these rolling acres of clay. If you don't believe it try to buy one of these farms. In conclusion I would submit that "East Kingston" is not an appropriate name for this growing settlement, as that title more properly belongs to the eastern division of your city. Who will suggest a more appropriate as well as euphonious title? South Flatbush might perhaps be better.

REX.

The New Prospect Church.

The Connitt case seems to have cost the New Prospect Church considerable. It finally won the case, but the expenses are, we think, more than the church property is worth: Some discussion ensuing in regard to the New Prospect Church troubles, the Elder present from that church was requested to make a statement of its affairs. He stated that the church owed its counsel in the Connitt litigation $1,258. The incidental expenses of the litigation were $814.25. The total indebtedness of the church from this cause was $2,072.26. If the church had to bear this burden alone he feared it would be crushed, and he hoped the Classis would sympathize with with and help them. The use of parsonage premises in the way of rent had still to be determined by the Referee. The counsel of the congregation thought they might recover from that quarter $550. A member of the Classis moved that the pastors and consistories of the several churches be requested to solicit contributions to assist the New Prospect Church in defraying these expenses. The motion was amended by appointing the pastor and elder of the church a committee to collect subscriptions. After considerable discussion the motion as amended was carried.

Railroad Accident.

Emmet Gregory of Stamford, Delaware county, a young man employed on a freight train on the N. Y., K. & S. Railroad, while coming east with his train on Thursday morning and on top of a car, was struck in the face and very severely injured by coming in contact with the bridge at West Hurley. The wounded man was brought to this city and conveyed to the office of Dr. Kennedy, who dressed his injuries and cared for him until the afternoon train, bound west, left this city, when young Gregory was sent to his home.

Accident.

On Wednesday afternoon while Mr. Elias T. Van Nostrand, a builder of this city, was entering the new building now in course of construction by him for Mr. John O'Reilly on Union ave., near the new City Hall, Mr. Van Nostrand was being followed by two men when the plank reaching from the sidewalk to the door of the building, and upon which they were walking broke, causing Mr. Van Nostrand to fall upon a pile of planks, lacerating the flesh on one arm in a very painful manner, and inflicting some severe bruises upon other portions of his body.

The Gold Hunters of the Shawangunks.

Last year we published an article written by one of our reporters, describing a trip to Lake Awosting on the Shawangunk mountains, in which an account was given of the visit of Benny Depuy to the cave of the old Indian Ninety-nine, and the vast amount of treasure he saw there. Since that time a great deal of speculation has been had concerning the whereabouts of this cave, and a number of persons have hunted the mountain over in a vain attempt to find the hidden treasure. Many supposed a huge boulder had fallen at the entrance of the cavern, thus hiding it from the sight of man.

A few months ago a story was circulated through Ellenville that a man who resided in New York city had interviewed an Indian 104 years old in the far west during the Modoc war, and that this Indian said he once resided at Port Hixon in Ulster county and that when he left that place there was a rich gold mine in this vicinity. The old chief further gave some directions concerning its locality, but which the New York gentleman had partly forgotten. Some Ellenville chaps hearing this story hastened to the city and found the interviewer, who by the way was a newspaper reporter, and for a sum of money received from him the whole story, and where the Indian could be found. The chief was sent for, but refused to come, as he was old and feared the journey would be more than he could bear; however, for a trifle he enlarged on his former description, and with great minuteness told the exact spot where the gold could be found. The Indian said the hunter must go down the creek until he came to a place between Port Hixon and Middleport, opposite the Bruyn House; then he must face toward the mountain and walk direct towards its summit. About half way up the mountain would be found a large pine tree with a mark on it. From this tree the hunter must turn a little to the left and in an oblique direction proceed still farther up the mountain until he came to a bunch of laurels in a swampy piece of ground. A short distance from this bunch of laurels would be found a large bare spot, and upon this place the person must stand with his face towards the east. When the sun rose in the morning if it shone directly in his face, then he must stoop down and commence to dig. If the sun did not shine in his face, then he must change his position until it would shine according to the directions of the chief.

This piece of information created a profound sensation among the gold hunters, and they immediately proceeded to make the search.—After an immense sight of labor had been done hunting for the place, the party at last tho't they had hit the exact spot and camped out all night. It was a bitter cold night, and they came very near freezing, only to find in the morning the sun was covered with clouds so it was impossible to tell where its first rays would touch. They were so sure it was the place that the whole day was used up in digging and blasting out a big hole in the side of the mountain. No cave or mine was found however, and the party were so discouraged they gave up the expedition in disgust. Since that time a number of other chaps have taken hold of the case, and are working it up in a splendid manner. These folks first make sure of the right spot, and then buy or lease several acres of land in the vicinity, so when the gold is unearthed, their title to the same will be secure. The persons most interested in the matter lately, besides those named in The Freeman a short time ago, are Jake Sherman, Ben D. Hornbeck, Isaac Bush and Jemmy Phillips. The sound of the pick and drill can be heard at all hours of the night, while heavy blasts reverberate through the mountain. Immense holes are blasted in the rocks, and still larger ones are scooped out of the morass.—We are in expectation every day of hearing something startling from that part of the county, and our reporter is on the qui vive to receive the earliest report possible.

The Greene and Ulster Baptist Quarterly Conference.

For many years there has existed a local missionary enterprise called "The Greene and Ulster Baptist Quarterly Conference," but for wise reasons this society was disbanded Wednesday, 15th instant, and the peculiar work forced upon it, viz., the work of giving partial support to feeble churches within its bounds raised up by its own missionaries, was turned over to the Hudson River Central Baptist Association. During its last session the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That our hearty thanks are hereby returned to our brother, Hon. Thomas Cornell, for his generous and long-continued contributions to the treasury of this Conference, and also for his profound interest in its missionary work.

Resolved, That in closing our relations with our missionaries, Brethren F. K. Van Tassel, G. W. Slater and J. L. Smith, we cannot withhold the expression of our undiminished confidence in their piety, of our thanks for the fidelity with which they have served the Conference, and of admiration for their self-sacrificing zeal in missionary work. We do also commend them to the Missionary Boards of the Hudson River North and Central Associations as worthy of increased support as pastors of the churches with which they are now identified.

Steamboat Racing.

The Troy Times of Tuesday evening last says: "The steamboat Sunnyside, of the Citizens' Line, left the dock at New York, at 6:05 o'clock last evening, and upon coming out of the slip the captain saw the Schuyler, of the Hancox Line, lying under the stern of the Troy boat. Before the Sunnyside could get under headway the Schuyler passed under full head of steam and immediately hoisted a whip-pennant. The Sunnyside soon got under headway, and in less than half an hour passed the Schuyler above Manhattanville, maintaining a lead of some distance all the way up. A new broom has been hoisted to the mast on the stern of the boat, and whip-pennants will fly from both bow and stern staffs on the trip down to-night. Perhaps the people who trust their lives and property on these boats would be as well satisfied if these races should go out of fashion. We are opposed to racing, but are glad that our boat won."

"Perhaps the people who trust their lives and property on these boats would be as well satisfied if these races should go out of fashion," but it is a well established fact that so long as the racing is continued the people will insist on trusting their lives to the boat which oftenest comes out ahead.

A Driving Incident.

A lady who was driving through Pine street, a day or two since, had three children with her in the wagon—one on the front seat alongside of her and the other two on the rear seat. The animal attached to the vehicle has a queer habit of giving an occasional jerk, and sudden withal. Now the man who had prepared the establishment for the lady's use had neglected to secure the hind seat by bolting it, and when the horse started up with one of his sudden jerks the hind seat toppled over backward into the road, carrying with it the two children seated thereon. The lady not being aware of the accident was proceeding serenely down Pine street when she noticed people rushing toward a common center, and thinking there was a dog fight in progress behind her she glanced over her shoulder to see it, when she discovered the seat and the two innocents prone in the road. Not thinking of the little one on the seat beside her the lady vaulted from the wagon without stopping the horse and rushed after the two little ones left astern. Fortunately some spectator to the scene captured the horse, and the two children who were tumbled overboard were uninjured by their fall.

What She Did for Punctuality.

On Monday of last week there was an occurrence on the Harlem Extension Railroad, that is worth recounting. About nine in the morning of that day, a serious collision—a collision between a girl and a train of cars—was avoided in a very singular and daring way. The girl is a school teacher, and she was on her way to school. The train was from Chatham, on its way to Rutland. Both met on the trestle-work near Brainard's Station.—The girl stood still, while the alarmed engineer whistled down brakes, and managed to stop the train only when his engine was within ten feet of the obstruction. The trestle-work is thirty-six feet high, and bears only one course of ties, and only one track. "What do you mean—do you want to be killed?" inquired the engineer. "No," said the girl, "I'm going to school." "Well, go back until the train crosses the trestle," said the engineer. "I can't," she replied; "I'm late now." "Step aside, then," and she stepped aside, outside the track and on to the edge of the ties. But the space was too narrow; the engine's wheels could not clear her expanded skirts. Her next plan was to sit down, with her legs dangling between the ties; but thus the hoops spread all the wider. Provoking delay for the engineer, humiliating failure and posture for the schoolmarm. "Hold on," said she, "I'll fix it!" and then gathering up her limbs and her skirts, she stretched herself at full length upon the outer edge of the ties, seized underneath with one hand the string-piece to which the rail is spiked, and coolly bade the train pass on! In a minute the train moved over the prostrate form, without jar or jolt; and the next instant the girl was on her feet, hastening towards her expectant pupils, before whom she was determined to be "on time," though she disarranged a dozen railroad time-tables.—Albany Argus.

Our Railroad Gobblers.

The Litchfields seem to carry trouble to every railroad they take. The South Side Railroad appears to be in as much difficulty as they brought upon the old R. & O. R. R. Speaking of this railroad we must certainly have back that old title. That N. Y., K. & S. Railroad title represents nothing but fraud, deception, bankruptcy and brass.

VICINITY.

—Fishkill has a slaughter-house war.

—A troupe of female minstrels performed at Poughkeepsie Thursday night.

—Poughkeepsie's new city charter has passed both houses.

—Hobart is preparing extensively for city boarders.

—Stamford has a cow that gives 46 pounds of milk daily.

—Charley Spencer's receptions at Albany are the most elegant in the city.

—Callicoon is going to try the cultivation of tobacco.

—There will be two daily trains from Port Jervis to Monticello after the 1st of May.

—Brigham Young's nineteenth wife lectured in Newburgh on Tuesday evening. She was introduced by Hon. James G. Graham.

—A newspaper to be called the Express will soon be started at Callicoon. How soon it will stop has not been stated.

—Walden has raised $5,000 for the prosecution of parties who sell liquor without licenses.

—The Troy papers report racing between the Sunnyside and Schuyler. Stop such fooling, Thomas.

—Cooney in de Hollow is doomed in Westchester county. She has raised her bounty to $1.

—Three thousand visitors were attracted to Middletown by the public reception at the State Homeopathic Asylum for the Insane.

—Eastman Park has two calves with only one head between them. Poughkeepsie isn't so short of calves' heads as to necessitate such parsimony.

—Churches sometimes try all sorts of things with which to raise money, but the Pawling M. E. Church is a little ahead. It has had a "Polyodrama."

—Rhinebeck has a big turkey suit, the costs in which already amount to $100. Fourteen turkeys are in dispute, and forty witnesses went to Poughkeepsie Thursday to swear who they belong to.

—Poughkeepsie has another horror, but it isn't located in Ulster county this time. One of Poughkeepsie's best citizens was up before the Recorder on Tuesday for burying a horse alive.

—The building used as a school-house and chapel in Englewood, on the Palisades, on the Hudson River, fell to the foot of the precipice, Saturday, smashing it into splinters. Fortunately there was nobody in it at the time.

—The Rev. Thomas Barry, rector of St. Paul's mission chapel of Albany, held a service for deaf mutes in Rochester on Tuesday. He administered baptism to a goodly number, and presented a class of five to the Bishop for confirmation.

—The School Commissioners of Broome Co. licensed but 102 out of 228 teachers who attended their drills this spring. In many cases the applicants were possessed of the qualifications heretofore required, but the Commissioners have concluded to raise the standard of education in that county by requiring better qualifications on the part of teachers.

—Rafting began quite lively last week. Some seventy rafts passed this place Thursday, about three hundred on Friday, four hundred on Saturday, sixty-five on Sunday and about fifty yesterday. The river is quite high and is still steadily rising. The bulk of the timber has probably gone down and the lumbermen are in a fair way of once more being in funds. Seven hundred rafts is a large two days' work.—Port Jervis Union.

VINEGAR BITTERS

PURELY VEGETABLE — FREE FROM ALCOHOL
DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
EUREKA
VINEGAR BITTERS

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelminitics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

VINEGAR BITTERS

PURELY VEGETABLE ★ FREE FROM ALCOHOL
DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
EUREKA
VINEGAR BITTERS

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelminitics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.
